There Are Just a Few Who Make Collections Costly

Most telephone subscribers pay their bills promptly and the labor expended in collecting the majority of telephone accounts is, therefore, reasonable.

But there are a number of subscribers who overlook their telephone bills, who neglect to pay them within the reasonable specified time, and the labor of collecting these accounts is great—probably two or three times as great as that involved in collecting all the accounts that are paid with the desired result.

The labor involved in collecting overdue accounts would be saved if all accounts were paid within a reasonable time, and, under present war-time conditions, might better be devoted to other work of value to the community's telephone service.

We are taking this means of placing the facts before telephone subscribers in general and we feel certain that they will co-operate by paying their bills promptly.

YANKEES SHOWING GREAT DASH IN BIG ATTACK

Open Way for French Cavalry to Get Into Action--Capture Many Towns, Cannons and Prisoners

(By Associated Press)
With the American Army in France (By the Associated Press) July 13--The American troops have carried all before them in their offensive so much so that late this afternoon cavalry were thrown into the attack. ## U. S. TO LOAN MONEY TO CHINA champs, Correy, Villers-Helon, Chaudin and also the heights dominating Soissons. The French cavalry have crossed the Rotissons Chateau-Thierry road through the opening made by the infantry attacks. Showing the effects of their splendid training the American troops have advanced and fought with remarkable dash. It is open warfare with all its accompanying excitement. ## JAPAN QUITE READY TO INTERVENE

Tokio, July 13 (By the Associated Press)--The Elder Statesmen met today and heard the Government's report concerning the question of despatching troops to Siberia. Formerly a position in the matter has not been reached, but it is believed that the Elder Statesmen are fully supporting the Government. Japan is quite prepared for military action, but it is felt she will respect any form of limitation on her movement of troops. Japanese newspapers continue to insist that the United States Government has made a proposal on the question of intervention in Siberia. Newspapers speculate regarding the number of divisions Japan will send. They also say that Emperor Yoshihito has postponed his departure for Tokyo for his summer villa an account of important developments.

Everybody Talks Intervention
Discussion of the question of Japanese intervention in Siberia has become general in Japan, says a Tokyo despatch dated Tuesday, July 16, to the Daily Express.

The impression is growing, the message says, that Japan is about to take action. Japanese business interests are clearly regarding the intervention, and the stock market in Tokyo on Tuesday was depressed, an early decision in favor of the sending of an expedition being expected. Viscount Kato, in an address to the Kenzo-Kai, while not opposing intervention and declaring that if the Entente Allies rely upon Japan's good faith Japan must not refuse, said, nevertheless, he doubts the possibility of an expedition reaching the Ural mountains, and feared that an advance only as far as Irkutsk would not achieve the object for which intervention was undertaken.

GOVERNMENT MAY TAKE OVER ALL PHYSICIANS

Washington, July 13--The government is about to assume control of the medical force of the United States to secure the necessary number of doctors for the constantly increasing army, and the distribution of those left in points where they will be most needed. The plan is for the mobilization of the physicians to be enrolled with a pledge that they will take service in the army or on civilian work where ever they are sent. If the volunteer plan does not work out then laws will be asked that the physicians may be drafted, but the Army Medical Corps does not think that it will be necessary to draft.

The destroyer was built in three months and the construction of the yard and the launching of this destroyer establishes a new world record.

WANT ROOSEVELT FOR GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK

(By Associated Press)
Saratoga, N. Y., July 13--The move to bring about the nomination of Col. Roosevelt as governor of New York took definite form this evening when Attorney General Merton E. Lewis, chief rival of Governor Whitman, issued a statement that he would withdraw if Col. Roosevelt would become a candidate. Col. ## TO WIPE OUT VENEREAL DISEASES

Local U. S. Public Health Board Will Take Drastic Steps Toward This End.

Dr. C. A. Weaver of Manchester, N. H., Acting Assistant Surgeon in the United States Public Health Service and representing the State Board of Health in a state-wide campaign for the control of venereal diseases was in this city, Tuesday, to confer with Dr. Paul Preble, of the Public Health Service, in charge of the Portsmouth-Kittery Civil Sanitary District.

The statement has been made, and the facts are a matter of record that about 1500 of the men who have been sent themselves for military duty from this state were found to have been suffering from Syphilis in some form. The extent of gonorrheal infection among these men was not known. With these appalling facts in mind, it is self-evident that immediate steps were necessary for instituting drastic measures for the eradication of venereal infections, not only for the protection of our military forces but to protect the civilian population.

The Army, Navy and Public Health Service have urged strong action for a nation-wide fight against these diseases and State Boards of Health generally have thrown their resources into the action.

To show how urgent the Federal Government considers the venereal control problem, Congress recently appropriated $2,400,000 for venereal control measures, to cut down the disease rate among the military forces and protect them against unsanitary prostitutes and camp followers. A Bureau of Venereal Diseases is provided for in the Bureau of the Public Health Service with an Assistant Surgeon General in charge and a nation-wide campaign will soon be in full swing. Financial assistance will be available to assist State Boards of Health and the Federal Government will back the move and see it through.

It is time to come out in the open and call a spade a spade and not spend our time in whispering about the "social evil." Time for real action, has come and action now is truly a "war measure" that cannot be shirked.

Venereal diseases belong in the same class as other contagious and infectious diseases and should be handled without gloves. New regulations will be promulgated and adopted by state and local boards of health declaring venereal diseases reportable in the same manner that smallpox or other communicable diseases are reported. Provisions will be made for the examination of persons known or suspected of being infected and facilities will be provided for the segregation or detention of those whose liberty would be dangerous to the public health.

In over twenty places in the United States where Government clinics have been established within the past year, the results have been most gratifying. "Public opinion" is being aroused and awakened to the horrible menace from venereal infections and the time is ripe for this state to wage a strong fight and a successful one against a real peril and no longer look upon it as a "social evil" and a "private" affliction.

In addition to the Army, Navy and Public Health Service, the American Social Hygiene Association and the International Association of Rotary Clubs as well as other private organizations have already thrown their efforts into the fight against venereal diseases.

Clean morals are most to be desired, but clean bodies, free from all infection, are not only a personal asset but a national asset. Portsmouth and this state now has the opportunity knocking at the door to wipe out a scourge far more deadly than smallpox or other "pestilential" diseases.

Expression of public opinion is desired. Don't be afraid to talk and admit facts.

AMERICANS TAKE 4000 PRISONERS

(By Associated Press)
From the region west of Soissons to northwest of Chateau-Thierry, American and French armies have begun a strong offensive against the Germans which possibly may have a marked influence on the future of the world war. In the initial stages of its progress it has met with great success. All along the twenty-five mile front the French and Americans dash and spirited fighting has captured thousands of prisoners and have taken large quantities of war supplies. So where has the enemy been able to stem the tide of the advance although in some places they have counter-attacked in an effort to do so but with no success. In the dash the Americans west of

CAMP BACON

You don't get much bacon nowadays. But will you ever forget the way it tasted outdoors? Will you ever forget the delicious aroma, when you held a piece over the fire, "toasting" it on a sharp stick? You certainly will never forget it. Lucky Strike cigarette is like that, too--the delicious taste comes from toasting the tobacco.

Save the tin-foil from Lucky Strike Cigarettes and give it to the Red Cross. Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co.

Soissons alone captured 4500 German 30 guns and vast quantities of war supplies. In addition the French are known to have taken many more thousands of prisoners and guns and supplies.

Before the American and French positions with their guns and machine guns tearing great gaps in them were the fleeing hordes of the enemy.

The blow probably long in its inception is being aimed at points that the capture of which will mean the forced retirement of the entire German salient south east and occupied by the Germans from Soissons to Rheims, with Chateau-Thierry as its most southern point, and will possibly result in the capture of thousands of prisoners, which includes many companies of the best German soldiers.

So fast has the advance of the French and American forces proceeded that they are across or astride of several of the roads from Soissons to Chateau-Thierry cutting off the German supplies. Here French cavalry were used with great success.

Six miles apparently is the deepest penetration in the line made by the allies. This was at Bazancourt south of Soissons, which they captured and passed through east. Several other points were reached and the position of the French and Americans at night was but a mile from Soissons. Twenty villages and towns were captured. All along the French front on both sides of Rheims the Entente armies are holding their own and in the east they have captured Prunay, but south of the Marne they have been forced back in local attacks by the Germans. The German official communication claims certain success south of the Marne.

In the Amiens sector the Australians have again smashed the line on a front of a mile or more.

London, July 13--French troops have gained the Revinge on the river Crise running into Soisson on a five mile front down to the east of Bazancourt, which means a maximum advance at this point of five miles according to news received in London tonight.

An American division cooperating with French troops have captured the town of Virey about six miles south of Soissons and have advanced three miles beyond this town. The Americans in the region west of Soissons have taken 4000 prisoners, 30 guns and much other material which was not yet been estimated south of Virey on the heights north of river Ourcq.

New York, July 13--The Federal food board announced Wednesday night that it had received a statement from the food administration showing that nearly 100,000,000 pounds of beef was sent abroad in May, principally to England, France, Italy and Belgium. The shipments for the month surpassed any previous record in the history of the country. While beef exports were 918,325,000 pounds for the same month, they were slightly less than in April.

That Six-Hour Day Question.

Certain elements are agitating for a six-hour day in the labor world. This seems very extravagant now, but not more so than did the agitation for an eight-hour day when it was begun. It will, therefore, not do to say that the coming of the six-hour day is impossible.

One of the arguments in favor of the change seems far-fetched. It is that when the millions of men now engaged in the work of war are released and return to the pursuits of peace there will be such a surplus of labor that the six-hour day will be ample if all are to have employment.

But not all of the millions of men who have been drawn into the war from this and other countries will return. And, even if they did, how much more crowded would the labor market be than it was before the war? That argument falls of its own weight.

Another argument of the reformers who would further shorten the work day is that the shortening of the day increases production. If this is so, how is the proposed change to make room for more workers? According to that line of reasoning if the work day were to be cut down to two hours there would be work for only a small proportion of the laborers, so great would be the production of those who did work.

The reasoning is not sound. Nothing is gained by working to the point of exhaustion, but to reduce the work day beyond reasonable limits is simply to increase the cost of production, a cost which the workers themselves cannot escape helping to pay.

It is to be remembered that the farm is not forever to be wholly exempt from the short work day. It is impossible now to hire men to work anything like the old hours on the farm, and to a certain extent this is a good thing. The old hours were too long, but even an eight-hour day on the farm would mean a revolution in agriculture and an alarming increase in the cost of living. Farm work could not be done on the basis of an eight-hour day without employing an amount of help that would bankrupt the farmer unless there was a corresponding rise in the price of his products, or by granting extra pay for overtime, as is done in other industries, which would amount to the same thing as carrying an extra force of help.

Already the day's work on the farm has been considerably shortened. This increases the cost of production and consumers are feeling the effects. But it not to be expected that farm workers will go on forever working long hours when those in other industries work shorter hours for better pay, and it is not reasonable to demand that they should, though this fact is probably overlooked by those who are clamoring for the shorter day.

In Paris the other night the people had an opportunity to listen to the booming of cannon and see the flashes light up the sky, just as New England people occasionally watch an evening thunder storm. But there is a vast difference in the sensations produced by the storms and the cannon.

It is reported from New York that at least forty fliers are ready to undertake a flight across the Atlantic, and it is predicted that the attempt will be made before the season ends. It is a big proposition, but it won't do to say that the thing cannot be done. We are living in an age of mighty developments.

How Hoover must smile when he learns that one New England woman is canning potato parings to feed to her pig next winter. That woman will probably not object to going without heat in her house till the first of December.

Some of the big financiers in this and other countries are predicting that the war will be over by January 1, 1919. What a Happy New Year such an outcome would bring!

The weather men say that July up to this time has been the coolest on record. But there will probably come a change one of these days that will cause all of us to forget it.

Come, Mr. Secretary Wilson, speed up that housing commission. It is certainly the slowest moving proposition in Washington.

The hotels in Kittery are still under the same management and "Uncle Sam" has yet to get behind the desk.

If all the housing problems are settled as rapidly as they are here (?) the men will have been gone for years.

"Washington proud of United States troops," says a head here. Yes, and so is the rest of the country.

The Kaiser is finding the American forces in France not quite so negligible as he imagined.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Too Much Mustard
(From the Springfield Republican)
Now that the Allies also have mustard gas it may be possible to interfere considerably with German offensive plans by making suspected areas uninhabitable for a few days.

In The Midst Of War
(From the Providence Journal)
Even in the midst of war, the routine duties of civilization cannot be neglected. An American sanitary commission has arrived at Guayaquil, Ecuador, to help stamp out yellow fever in that notorious pest hole.

Booming Edison For Senator
(From the Brooklyn Eagle)
Informally announced from Washington, the boom of Thomas Alva Edison for nomination as the Democratic candidate for United States senator from New Jersey is likely to swell and swell indefinitely, unless Mr. Edison vetoes it. He is a close friend of Henry Ford, who is being boomed in the same way in Michigan. Both Ford and Edison were thought of as nominal Republicans, but both are friends of President Wilson.

Mr. Edison is now seventy-one years old. A native of Ohio, he has belonged to New Jersey for more than forty years in so far as a world figure may be said to belong to any State. If he has ever had ambitions for a toga in the past he has kept them carefully concealed. Governor Walter Edge, who is likely to be the Republican candidate, is so strong a man that perhaps no Democrat of the machine type could beat him. He will not underestimate the significance of an Edison candidacy. If Mr. Edison should set out to invent a way of getting votes for himself he might have it perfected before November.

Saving Russia's Life-Line
(From the New York World)
The Murman coast of Russia, which American and British troops are said to have occupied and placed under Allied protection, is as far north as King William Land, where Franklin abandoned the Erebus and Terror, to wander to his death in cold and darkness. But the Gulf Stream makes it ice-free, while Archangel, much further south, is blocked in winter.

For half the year, therefore, so long as Germany harries the Baltic, the Kola or Murman railway is Russia's sole sea outlet to the western world. It is to save that life-line, with its immense value for handling material of war and peaceful reconstruction, that the Allies have acted. The British have apparently occupied the rail-road as far as Kola, where it skirts the western angle of the White Sea on its way to Petrograd.

The demand of Mr. Chicherin, Bolshevik foreign minister, that the British detachments on the Murman coast be withdrawn will cause little surprise. Since Brest-Litovsk, no surrender by that faction to German encroachments has been unexpected. To Finland the Allies' action gives no occasion of legitimate offense since the Murman railway is beyond Finnish territory.

What Our Pro-Germans Will Do
(From the New York Commercial)
If the Federal Government proves its case against Dr. Edward A. Ramey, vice president of the Mail and Express Company, Americans will have a clear understanding of German plots to subvert and control certain newspapers. The Mail has been loyal enough since we entered the war and it is now in the hands of men whose patriotism is unquestioned.

There are other newspapers whose loyalty is not above suspicion. The Ramey still has use for men and newspapers in this country. While the war lasts they will keep quiet, but when the hour comes to discuss terms of peace the Kaiser's secret service will try to create sentiment in favor of easy terms for the Hun. We shall then hear much about letting the German people choose their own form of government.

The German people have no chance to throw off the yoke of autocracy. It is riveted on their necks and is there to stay as long as autocracy and Prussian militarism survive. They are not free agents. Prussianism will survive this war as it lived through other conflicts. Any uprising of the people would be crushed as was that of 1848. If America comes to the Kaiser's rescue on the plea of self-determination for Germany when the people have no chance to make a free choice this war will have been fought in vain.

With this object in view Germany will continue to spend money to secure the support of newspapers printed in America. Those who do not will receive special favors, for the Kaiser knows how to estimate a man's price and is willing to pay it. Pro-Germans and papers controlled by them will come to the front to help their paymaster as soon as they can be of some service to him, and that will be when peace negotiations begin. Watch the crocodile tears they will shed over the alleged hard terms our Allies will seek to impose when the time comes. The leopard cannot change its spots.

The Great Conservator
(From the Springfield Republican)
The extent to which the fireless cooker has become a standby in this time of need in households of this country would have carried joy to the heart of the late Edward Atkinson, who led the way. He was a great conservator.

PURPOSE OF ENLISTED MEN'S BENEFIT

Editor—In answer to the questions of a brother on Congress street relative to a benefit for sailors and soldiers permit me to say first that the Methodist church of this city is the authority for the said benefit. The name of the church and the purpose appears on all advertisements, posters and tickets.

Second: The benefit is to raise a fund to continue and enlarge the war work done by this church for the enlisted men who frequent our city.

Third: Whether this is "In line for war saving" or not, our brother on Congress street is left to judge for himself. Suppose he had a son in the service on the west coast, located in a fort, say, on the San Francisco Bay or that his ship put in there after long months at sea. Suppose he were lonesome and homesick, with a 7- or 10-day furlough, too short for him to reach home and return. Would it not be a source of comfort to our brother to know that some church had opened its doors to his boy and given him a homelike time with a chance to meet some folks that really cared for him a little like the folks at home would do?

That is what the Methodist church here is trying to do and the interesting thing is that a large proportion of the men entertained have signified that they are from the far west. It should be remembered that Uncle Sam prizes morale above everything else and that the church leads in the production and conservation of this fighting quality. Therefore, the Methodist church of Portsmouth, as a church in a camp zone, recognizes that it has a service to perform in helping to put the flight in the splendid fellows that come our way.

For several months past our church has been entertaining from about 50 to 125 soldiers, sailors or marines weekly in the church. Varied programs have been provided, games played with enthusiasm and generous refreshments served free, all resulting in a wholesome good time which the boys have thoroughly enjoyed. The church has done this work without either financial backing or extra workers. The strain, however, is proving too great to continue without assistance. Hence this benefit fund.

I am satisfied that the people of Portsmouth believe in this kind of work and are glad to boost it. Even so, the song-recital to be given by Mr. U. S. Kerr in the Portsmouth Theatre on July 30 should not be viewed by our citizens as a charity but rather as a fine privilege. The singer is beyond doubt one of the great artists of our time, which makes the price of admission which ranges from 50c to $1.50, very moderate indeed without any consideration of a benefit. Should our brother on Congress street or anyone else have any further questions regarding this recital or our interest in it I shall be more than pleased to answer them.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Editor—Let me add my support to your article on enlarging the Portsmouth Navy Yard. Good work. I certainly do admire your boosting spirit. Call on me to help in any way. Let the Chamber of Commerce take heart of this project also. Keep at it Portsmouth will appreciate the spirit some day.

Editor—That was a clever cartoon showing the housing situation at Newington. It hit the nail on the head. Send a copy to the housing commission and the thousands of so-called investigators. We will give Uncle Sam ships but we must insist on his providing us with homes. Keep hammering away, Mr. Editor.

Says Avenue is Bad
The people of Richards Avenue as well as those who drive vehicles on that highway are about tired of looking at and riding over the bad places in the paving which have been allowed there since last spring. Why should the Gas Company or any other public service corporation be permitted to dig up such a finely paved thoroughfare at their own convenience and then leave the street in a dangerous condition for a year or more?

Is it not time that the city council or the public works exercised some authority in such matters and compelled every corporation to replace paving as soon as a service and water line pipes or underground wires are laid? No city in the country tolerates such work and its time there was less digging up of costly paving in all sections of Portsmouth. Richards Avenue is bad and as I understand it the city is liable in case of accident. Some of the corporations doing business here get away with anything.

FOR PORTSMOUTH SANITARY DISTRICT

Two Regular Red Cross Nurses Detailed to Co-operate With Local Authorities.

In order to supplement the organization made possible by the funds contributed locally for establishing and maintaining a sanitary district around the Navy Yard, the American Red Cross War Council at Washington has made an appropriation to establish a Sanitary Unit in this district under the direction of Dr. Paul Preble of the United States Public Health Service, in charge of the Portsmouth-Kittery Civil Sanitary District. This Sanitary Unit will consist of two public health nurses and their services will be a valuable addition to the local sanitary organization. Miss Elizabeth Murphy of Concord, N. H., and Miss Frances Elison of Portsmouth, Va., have been assigned to duty here, both being enrolled Red Cross Nurses.

These public health nurses will be detailed to the Division of Communicable Diseases under Passed Assistant Surgeon C. E. Walter. They will visit cases of contagious and infectious diseases reported to the Health Department, give instructions in preventing further spread of these diseases, and observe and direct the quarantine measures required by regulations. This will be of incalculable value to practicing physicians generally and will keep the health department informed at all times concerning the progress of the cases as well as developing in the household a respect and demand for prophylactic measures which will tend to prevent spreading these diseases.

These nurses will not interfere with the rights of physicians or households. They will act always under the direction of the Health Department and will be readily recognized by their uniform. The full cooperation of the organized charities of Portsmouth and the District Nursing Association is assured.

ARGUES STREET SPRINKLING IS A MENACE

A few days ago the Herald published an article from Dr. August Guertin of Nashua, who condemns street sprinkling as a menace to public health. The article has caused a great deal of comment and has called forth the following letter addressed to the Mayor.

171 Middle Street
Portsmouth, N. H.
July 19, 1918.

Mayor of Portsmouth,

Dear Sir:

I beg to call to your attention the recent statement by Dr. August Guertin, of Nashua, in regard to street sprinkling, published recently in the local papers. I quite agree with the doctor and I also feel sure that you as a physician will also endorse his views. It is my opinion that street sprinkling, as conducted in Portsmouth, is not only a menace to the health of the community but is also practically useless and a needless waste of the taxpayer's money.

The water which is sprinkled on the streets dries up within a few minutes of the time it is put on, so that when the sprinkling cart makes its return trip, the street over which it passes is as dry as a bone but no sprinkling is done on the return trip. As soon as the water dries, whatever dirt was there previous to the sprinkling is still there. As Dr. Guertin says, the streets should be flushed with water and the dirt removed, not allowed to remain there to breed germs and disease. The above applies to paved streets. In regard to the unpaved streets which have been oiled, I know of no satisfactory way to remove the dirt from them and by the oil prevents the dust from flying. It seems to me it is a waste of water to sprinkle them.

I am writing you in the hope that you will refer this important matter to the proper parties with a view to a thorough investigation so that not only may the taxpayer's money not be wasted but also so that there may be removed from the community a serious menace to the health of our citizens, our numerous and welcome summer visitors, and, most important of all, our brave soldiers and sailors!

Respectfully yours,

JOHN P. B. CHANDLER

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS IN PRIESTHOOD

Rev. Dennis J. O'Brien Honored on His 25th Anniversary.

Rev. Dennis J. O'Brien, pastor of St. Michael's Catholic church, South Berwick, for the past 25 years, with a mission at York Beach observed Wednesday the silver anniversary of his ordination as a priest. Bishop I. S. Walsh of Portland and about 40 priests and high church dignitaries of the diocese attended the celebration. The sermon at a solemn high mass was preached by Rev. J. J. Ahern of Eastport. Bishop Walsh preached the concluding sermon. In the sanctuary were Monsignor McDonough, vicar general of the diocese, and Monsignor Hamel of Biddeford. Dinner was served the clergy at noon in the town hall.

Father O'Brien was born in Lewiston. He attended the priesthood in Paris and was ordained there. Before going to South Berwick he served parishes at Bangor, Oldtown, Belfast and Portland. Until Kittery was made a regular parish it was also included with York Harbor and York Beach in the missions attached to South Berwick parish.

Quite often a customer comes to our store wanting to make a quick purchase and get away. Perhaps it may be a library table, a rug or an even more important purchase, yet they are in a hurry or think they are.

LAWN PARTY WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Held Thursday Evening on Methodist Church Grounds by Epworth League.

Fair skies and the absence of showers which have been a daily occurrence of late, made ideal weather conditions for the lawn party of the Epworth League Society of the Methodist church held Thursday evening on the church grounds. The affair was a great success in every way.

The lawn about the church was prettily trimmed with Japanese lanterns, strings of these running from the church to the trees, and at dark these were lighted. Tables were arranged on the lawn for the sale of bundles, ice cream, candy and peanuts, and the patronage was good throughout the evening.

Previous to the entertainment a tug of war between a team of enlisted men from the fort and one from a ship at the navy yard, created no little interest, the fort team being the winners. The program was given the latter part of the evening in the vestry and was especially pleasing, the numbers calling forth hearty applause.

The order was as follows:
Selection—Orchestra.
Pauline Taylor, piano; Wyatt Wendell, violin; Philip Rugg, cornet; Edward Moulton, traps.

Readings, illustrated by Tableaux.
Miss Mae Leslie Warren
Selection—Orchestra.
Vocal Solo—Miss Gertrude Brille
Selection on traps—Leona Dodge
Selection—Orchestra.

The committees in charge of the affair were as follows:
General chairman, Miss Marguerite G. Jenness, president of the Epworth League Society.

Entertainment, James H. Smith.
Bundle table, Misses Esther Ramadell, Hazel Barber, Clara Brille.
Ice cream table, Miss Miriam Schumacher.
Miss Hattie Oxford, Mrs. Richard Brille, Mrs. John Brille, Mr. and Mrs. David Day, Clarence A. Parmenter.

Candy, peanut and tonic table, Mrs. Harry L. Hilton, Miss Una Whittier, A. G. Delacroix.
Tickets, Miss Gertrude Brille, Cecil Cloutman.
Decorations, Rev. Hollis S. Tuttle.

There was a large number in attendance and the committee in charge deserves much credit for the success of the affair.

THIEVES STILL BUSY ABOUT CITY

In addition to the break at the house of Mr. C. Pyle on Wednesday night, the police are working on two other breaks. A short time ago the house of Mrs. F. E. Potter on Millington St. was entered, a large amount of solid silver taken, the thief taking all of the plate pieces. The house of Mr. W.

Peysor on Miller avenue was broken into while he was away but nothing taken.

These two breaks as in the one Wednesday evening there is no clue whatever, nobody saw the thief or thieves and no definite time was known of the breaks.

The thief who broke into the Poye house also broke into the Woman's Building and was detected by one of the women lodgers in her room. She woke up and saw him standing in the room with her pocket book and when she screamed he dropped the pocketbook and fled through an open window where he had gained admittance. From this young lady the police received a description of the man, which is the best so far obtained.

Y. M. C. A.	2	8	.200

The P. A. C. defeated the Y. M. C. A. in an extra inning game at the Play grounds on Thursday evening in a sunset league schedule. The former Champions won the game in the eighth when a double-notted two runs. The game was rather closely fought, the Y. M. C. A. being especially poor in pinches and they had seven errors to their credit, the P. A. C. had four of which two were given Jordan at first. He was unable to pitch and as Howland is still laid up, he took the first sock and did very well.

O'Brien pitched for the P. A. C. and he allowed only five hits, but issued five passes and hit two men, but he needed his position well and drove in the two winning runs.

McLloyd came on the field for the Y. M. C. A. and he pitched a good game allowing but five hits and no passes, but his support was wretched.

The Champions did not score until the third when Thomas reached first on Thompson's fumble. McPhee singled and they pulled a double steal. Harrington, Amel, Barker hit to Thompson and Thomas scored, but McPhee was thrown out. Thompson's Smith to Phillips, Jordan struck out.

They scored two more runs in the fourth Vaughan getting a single, C. Brackett, hit to Sorotte, W. Woods was safe on Phillips's error, O'Brien came out to Pontina, unassisted, Vaughan and W. Woods moving up and they both scored when Phillips allowed Thomas's hit to go through him, McPhee was thrown out by Thompson. They tried to score in the fifth when Barker on an error by McLloyd stole base and a wild pitch scored.

Then Y. M. C. A. scored in the first on a base on balls to Thompson who stole second and took third on Thompson's overthrow springing on a wild pitch. They scored in the second on a single by Sorotte a stolen base by Jordan of Phillips' ground ball placed him on third and he scored on Muller's single. McWilliams hit for two bases but Muller's error on third and Thompson was thrown out by McPhee.

They took the lead in the fourth after McLloyd's hit to Barker, Phillips singled, Muller hit to Harrington who fumbled and McWilliams fled to Barker, but Thompson came through with a wild base hit springing Phillips and Muller.

Neither side scored until the eighth when McLloyd got Jordan out by a pop, Vaughan singled, C. Brackett and Woods were both thrown out by Thompson and O'Brien doubled scoring Jordan and Vaughan.

KILLED ON R. R. CROSSING AT ROCHESTER

A. S. Goodwin of That City Struck by Express Train and Thrown 125 Feet.

Amazulu S. Goodwin, a carpenter of Rochester, was struck by a train at the crossing near the Champlain lumber mills in that city and instantly killed at 4:30 Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Goodwin had been a resident of Rochester for 13 years and had just secured work at these mills. He had conveyed his tools to the plant preparatory to going to work today and was returning in his wagon when an express train bore down upon him going 40 miles an hour. Cars on a siding obscured his view and when he got upon the track the train was upon him. His horse heard or saw the train quicker than the man did and made a leap to escape, wrenching the millstree from the wagon; but not getting the wagon across the track, it was struck by the locomotive and Mr. Goodwin was thrown 125 feet and fell upon his head on the rails; the fall crushing his skull. His body was so mangled that the ribs protruded.

Mr. Goodwin was 65 years of age and was born in Acton, Me. He was a member of the Rochester grange and highly respected. He is survived by a widow; a son, Neal; and two daughters, Alice and Cora. At 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, Cora had left Rochester for a vacation at Springvale, Me., and on her arrival there was informed of the accident and returned by the next train.

The crossing at which Mr. Goodwin met his death is not protected by gates or a crossing tender, and about a year ago two men were killed there under similar circumstances. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Isaac Barrett, whose husband worked in the plant and was just returning from taking her husband's supper to him, he being engaged to work last night, when the same train nearly ran her down, she escaping by the merest margin.

Mr. Goodwin's horse ran some distance after the accident, but was caught after a time. She did not seem to be much hurt, but was considerably lamed up.

Business and the Golden Rule.

Business men testify that the way of treating people represented by the expression, "Business is business," is going out of fashion. They say the best business is to work the Golden Rule into it wherever it is possible. Everybody notices that courtesy and politeness are more in evidence among the employees toward customers and among successful employers toward employees. Men and women get on best in all business relations when they treat each other as equals, and give what they like to receive.

Peru's Great Museum.

Peru's capital is the home of a national museum, one of the world's most interesting institutions of this nature. It shares with that of Cairo in displaying to modern peoples various incidents of life and activity of bygone races. Also the gallery of paintings of Peruvian history is particularly noteworthy. The remains of the first airplane to cross the Alps in which the Peruvian airman, Don Jorge Chavez, lost his life, is another interesting exhibit.

Few Words Needed.

It is declared by a philologist that nine words do one-fourth of our verbal work and 43 one-half. The nine most useful words are: And, he, have, it, of, the, to, will, you. The 34 more that with these nine do half our literary work are: About, all, as, at, can, come, day, dear, far, go, hear, her, if, in, me, much, not, on, one, say, she, so, that, there, they, this, too, time, we, with, write, your.

Shrines to Foxes.

There are numberless shrines in Japan dedicated to foxes. The legend is another natural fear by the superstitious Japanese mind. It is believed to have power to annoy people, and to be able to turn into a priest at will. The crying of woe and the baying of dogs are considered evil omens, and such insignificant happenings send a shudder through the believers.

Thackeray Always Late.

An external stimulus sometimes is necessary to bring a writer's ideas to a focus. It was the custom with Thackeray never to go to bed until he had put off until tomorrow. He was, therefore, frequently behind with his copy and it was no uncommon thing for him to keep the messenger from his publisher waiting at the door while he wrote the last pages of the book.

Has 235 Species of Ferns.

The island of Mauritius, less than one-third the area of Delaware, has 235 native species of ferns; Java, a little larger than New York, has 490, while Brazil contains 857. All Europe furnishes but 67 species, the Arctic zone, 26; North America, north of Mexico, has about 175 native species.

LIGHTNING CAUSES $4000 FIRE LOSS

Newburyport, July 15.—Fire Wednesday night destroyed the house, barn and outbuildings of Mrs. Ellen Winslow in Indian Spring road, West Newbury, causing a loss of $4000.

The barn was struck by lightning and immediately burst into flames. A ton of hay causing them to spread rapidly. All the buildings were connected and the destruction was soon complete. The house of G. Albert Knowles, directly opposite, was saved by hard work of neighbors and a change of wind.

The contents of the Winslow barn were destroyed, but most of the house hold furniture was removed.

The storm here was a violent one and the clouds so darkened the sky that artificial lights were generally used. Street car service was suspended for over an hour. Lightning struck in a number of places, but no serious damage resulted. Large hailstones ruined many vegetables in this vicinity.

DARTMOUTH MAN JOINS MARINE CORPS

Boston, July 18.—Frequent "curtains" for aviators, reported on both sides of the water of late, haven't deterred Eldon D. Lougee, Dartmouth, 19, of Plymouth, N. H., who offered himself for Marine Corps aviation, in Scituate yesterday.

Lougee postponed his A-1 training June 2, 1917, and went over to France with the Dartmouth unit of the American Field Ambulance Service along with Warren T. Hobbs and Ernest Giroux, both lately killed in aviation.

At Domera, influenced by the late Raoul Lufbery, he made application for the Lafayette Escadrille, and studied there from July 2 to July 15. He missed it, because, he says, at the immense number of candidates, and went back to ambulance driving until Jan. 29 of this year. Since he has been doing various work throughout and intends to complete his Dartmouth course "after the war."
